

Track 1

Number	Author(s)	Paper
4	Sabine Blaschke	Women's Quotas as a Means of Union Revitalisation in Austria
9	Jane Parker & Julie Douglas with Janice Foley	We're coming out of the side-lines: The role of women's groups in New Zealand, UK and Canadian unions in addressing intersectional interests
11	Hanno van Eldik	Work-Family Conflict in Western Europe: Gender Roles and Market Pressures
12	Raquel Rego, Reinhard Naumann & Paulo Alves	Towards a typology of trade unions uses of the Internet: Preliminary data on the Portuguese case
24	Line Eldring & Kristin Alsos	Migrant domestic workers – beyond regulation regimes?
29	Michelle Kaminski & Jailza Pauly	Putting it all together: Support for and obstacles to women's union leadership
32	Dr. José María Miranda Boto & Ricardo Rodríguez Contreras	Several problems of the trans-national activity of labour intermediation services
41	Berndt Keller & Hartmut Seifert	Non-standard forms of employment in Germany. Development, patterns and regulation in a comparative perspective
44	Kurt Vandaele	A twofold unsatisfied demand for organising? Young workers, youth representatives and union confederations' organising efforts
48	Anja Kirsch	Revitalization through gender equality: a challenge for trade unions
52	Dr. Yolanda Maneiro Vázquez	Cross-border workers and jurisdiction. Some problems from the experience of Spanish labour law
55	Sigmund Aslesen & Anne Mette Ødegård	EU Enlargement and the Subsequent Patterns of Employing Central and Eastern European Labor in the Norwegian Shipbuilding Industry
56	Amanda Thompson	Men, masculinities and flexible working
65	Steve Shelley, Moira Calveley & Jane Hardy	Trade union learning initiatives and migrant workers in a time of recession and restructuring: The case of the Communication Workers' Union in the United Kingdom
82	Janine Leschke & Maria Jepsen	Has the economic crisis been a challenge or an opportunity in achieving more gender equality in social policy outcomes? A comparison of Denmark, Germany and the UK
86	Anne Mette Ødegård, Øyvind Berge & Kristin Alsos	New regulations for temporary work agencies – can a growing informal market be subdued? A case study of the Norwegian construction sector
91	Dr. Lefteris Kretsos	Trade Union Responses to the rise of precarious employment among young people in Southern Europe
94	Sian Moore, Greg Thomson & Max Watson	The true spirit of self-organisation? Migrant worker activists in UNISON
98	Dr Heather Connolly & Miguel Martínez Lucio	Trade union responses towards immigration in Europe: Policy, politics and the language of inclusion
112	Sonia McKay	Does one size fit all? - Trade unions, discrimination and legal regulations
116	I.U. Zeytinoglu, A. Keser, G. Yilmaz & A. Ozsoy	Job satisfaction, commitment and intention to stay among Banks' call centre workers: The case of workers in Turkey
122	Peter Nolan & Gary Slater	Manual Work Matters
131	Geraldine Healy & Gill Kirton	The mobilisation of women trade union leaders – a comparative perspective
138	Colm McLaughlin & Simon Deakin	Equal Pay and Reflexive Regulation
159	Dr Stephen Mustchin	Unions, learning, migrant workers and trade union "revitalisation" in the UK
160	David Peetz & Michael Alexander	Formal and informal union education in the promotion of union democracy and activism
168	Dr. Zeynep Şişli	The effects of the diversification of labour force on tradeunion activities
177	Sue Ledwith	Outsiders and insiders; Gender work in British industrial relations and trade union studies

Track 2

Number	Author(s)	Paper
17	Dr Tony Royle	The Regulatory Challenge of 'Financialization' and the Multinational Corporation: A review of ILO Standards, Social Clauses and Voluntary Corporate Initiatives
33	Jørgen Stamhus & Flemming Ibsen	The distribution of pay schemes among firms and occupational groups – evidence from Denmark
34	Inger Marie Hagen	Board level representation – still an unused resource?
38	Eivind Falkum, Inger Marie Hagen & Sissel Charlotte Trygstad	Participation and co-determination among Norwegian employees – State of the Art 2009
39	Charissa Freese, René Schalk & Jaap Paauwe	New psychological contracts and flexicurity HR practices
53	Robert Salomon	HR Personnel and Social Scientists as Evil Judges. Some Challenges in Conflict Mapping and Mediation in Working Life
54	Matteo Picchio & Jan van Ours	Market Failures and Firm-Sponsored Training
58	Daniel Fleming & Henrik Sjøborg	Skill formation, employment relations and institutional support. A comparison of emerging knowledge-based economies in East Asia with the Nordic Countries.
62	Roger Seifert & Kim Mather	The crisis of pay determination in the UK fire and police services: a study of modernization and resistance
63	Søren Vøxted & Jens Lind	New principles of management in modern organizations
68	Paul Jonker-Hoffrén & Guy Vernon	Paths to productivity: Strategic alternatives for Paperiliitto in sustaining high union relevance and employment in Finnish paper.
88	Hazel Mawdsley, Duncan Lewis & Michael Sheehan	Workplace bullying and the role of trade unions: Issues of voice and collectivism
93	Jimmy Donaghey & Niall Cullinane with Tony Dundon & Tony Dobbins	Non-union employee representation, union avoidance and the managerial agenda
103	Catherine Vincent & Michèle Tallard	The French public trade unions facing new forms of human resource management in yje public hospitals
105	Alan Tuckman & Jeremé Snook	What do non-union employee representatives do? A case study
107	Kirsty Newsome	Work and Employment in Distribution and Exchange: The New Satanic Mills?
108	Verena Tobsch, Simon Fietze & Wenzel Matiaske	Financial participation in Germany. Management's and works councils' view
109	Ole Busck, Herman Knudsen & Jens Lind	Who is in control? The effect of employee participation on the quality of the work environment
113	Dr. Stefan Zagelmeyer	Another Great Transformation? Company-Level Employment Relations during and after the Financial Crisis
121	David Beale & Stephen Mustchin	Tracing and explaining the recent history of employee involvement and workplace unionism in the British postal service
128	Heejung Chung	The provision of work-life balance arrangements of European companies: Public versus private, a multi-level approach
137	R. Markey, H. Knudsen, C. Harris, K. Ravenswood, G. Simpkin, O. Busck & J. Lind	Employee participation and well-being: Denmark and New Zealand
139	Paul-André Lapointe	Collectivism and partnership, the main drivers of workplace social innovations
141	Anna Ilsoe	Safety nets or straight jackets – the regulatory frameworks on working time in the Danish, German and American metal industries
156	Barbara Bechter	How does multinational ownership condition variable pay and how are MNCs differing from domestic counterparts?
165	Maarit Laiho & Satu Lähteenmäki	Is Global Financial Crisis the Real Cause or just a Camouflage for changes in HRM strategy? - Measuring Mismatch of HRM Rhetoric and Action amongst MNCs in Finland
166	Dr Stefan Kesting	Power, Communicative Action and Worker Participation
170	Sara Martinez-de-Morentin, Alberto Bayo-Moriones & Jose Enrique Galdon-Sanchez	A study of performance appraisal using Spanish data

Track 3

Number	Author(s)	Paper
3	Dr Andrea Winkelmann-Gleed	Demographic change and its consequences on workforce aging in Europe
5	Jason Heyes	Training, employment and 'employability': Responding to the jobs crisis
19	Christian Lyhne Ibsen	Strained compromises? Flexicurity during crisis
20	Dr Adam Mrozowicki, Dr Jan Czarzasty & Dr Katarzyna Gajewska	Union inclusion in Poland: developments and obstacles
37	Jason Heyes	Training, employment and 'employability': Responding to the jobs crisis
45	Rémi Bourgiognon & Heidi Wechtler	The Union Question in Industrial Relations Field: An Analysis of the Academic Literature.
47	Erling Rasmussen & Barry Foster	The role of employer attitudes and strategies in the rise of individualism and the associated wider economic and social implications
69	Susanne Pernicka & Stefan Lücking	Knowledge Work – A Contribution to the Decline or Resurgence of (Craft) Unionism?
78	Per Kongshøj Madsen, Thomas Bredgaard, Flemming Larsen & Stine Rasmussen	Inside the "Golden Triangle" - A disaggregate analysis of the dynamics of the Danish flexicurity model
79	Thomas Bredgaard & Flemming Larsen	External and internal flexicurity
81	Jan Kees Looise & Martijn van Velzen	Employment relations innovation and economic performance: uncovering myth and reality. The case of the Netherlands.
84	Trine P. Larsen, Jens Arnholtz Hansen & Nana Wesley Hansen	Danish Flexicurity - A Role Model, but what is there to Copy? - The Case of Fixed-term, Agency, and Visiting Workers
89	Henning Jørgensen, Iben Nørup & Kelvin Baadsgaard	De-professionalization in Danish labour market policy implementation?
97	Emmett Caraker	The Christian trade union movement and the Danish collective bargaining system
135	Martin Behrens & Andreas Pekarek	To merge or not to merge? The impact of union mergers and union independence on workers' representation in Germany
143	Ewart Keep & Susan James	Re-thinking the incentives to learn at the bottom end of the labour market
151	Dr. Lars W. Mitlacher	Work-life balance0accounts as an instrument to support learning and knowledge transfer in German companies
155	Luigi Burroni & Maarten Keune	Exploring the conceptual weaknesses of flexicurity: on ambiguity, complementarities, conflicts of interest and reductionism
158	Luigi Burroni	Flexicurity and the uncertain governance of labour market reforms in Italy

Track 4

Number	Author(s)	Paper
6	Anne-Gaël Vaubourg, Donatella Gatti & Christophe Rault	Unemployment and finance: how do financial and labour market factors interact?
7	John W. Budd	Regulating the Hidden Abode of Production: The Importance of Conceptualizations of Work for Employment Regulation
10	Edmund Heery	Debating Employment Law: Responses to Juridification
22	Reinhard Bispinck, Heiner Dribbusch and Thorsten Schulten	German Collective Bargaining in a European Perspective: Continuous Erosion or Re-Stabilisation of Multi-Employer Agreements?
23	Sylvie Contrepois & Steve Jefferys	Between Market, Class and Society: trade union actors and employment regulation in Central and Eastern Europe
26	Patrik Nordin	Blocking the participation? How trade unions from the CEE and SEE countries have fared with the European level cooperation - Case study of the European metal sector
28	John Kelly & Kerstin Hamann	General Strikes in Western Europe, 1980-2008
30	Dr. Berndt Keller & Frank Werner	Negotiated employee involvement in the Societas Europaea – a new mode to harmonisation and convergence or to heterogeneity and fragmentation?
36	Ian Clark	'Traffic' and EU regulation of employment and industrial relations in 'New capitalism'
43	Geraint Harvey & Peter Turnbull	The Global Financial Crisis, European Labour Market Regulation and the Future of Industrial Relations in the International Civil Aviation Industry
46	Berndt Keller & Sabrina Weber	Sectoral social dialogue at EU level: Current issues and prospects
60	Lucio Baccaro & Chris Howell	Institutional Change in European Industrial Relations: Reformulating the Case for Neoliberal Convergence
64	Raoul Gebert	Strategic trade-union responses to European integration: Nordic trade union strategies between institutional complementarities and multilevel governance
67	Ralph Darlington & Dr. Heather Connolly	The limits and potential of militant trade unionism in France and Britain: A Comparative Study of SUD-Rail and RMT unions
76	Rienk Goodijk	Corporate governance and Works Councils: a Dutch perspective
83	Volker Telljohann, Isabel da Costa, Torsten Müller & Udo Rehfeldt	The impact of European and International Framework Agreements on the internationalisation of industrial relations
85	Nils Karlson & Henrik Lindberg	The decentralization of wage bargaining – A comparative case study
102	Dr. Michael Whittall & Dr. Stefan Lücking & Rainer Trinczek	Don't German Employees Value European Works Councils? Understanding the Low European Works Council Rate in Germany
124	Anna Ilsøe	The flip coin of organised decentralisation – company-level bargaining in the Danish industrial sector and its effects
126	Gregor Gall	Resisting Recession and Redundancy – contemporary worker occupations in Britain
136	Martin Behrens & Markus Helfen	Employers' Exit from Multi-Employer Bargaining. Organizational Change in German Employers' Association
146	Dr. Werner Nienhueser & Heiko Hossfeld	Effects of Trust on the Preference for Decentralised Bargaining. An Empirical Study of Managers and Works Councillors
161	Linda Senden & Sonja Bekker	The Role and Regulation of Third Actors in the Framework of the Open Method of Coordination
175	Carsten Strøby Jensen	Crises or No Crises? That Is the Question in the Practical and Academic Fields of Industrial Relations
178	Peter Auer & Kazutoshi Chatani	Flexicurity: still going strong or a victim of the crisis?